I. INTRODUCTION

The application respects and safeguards the personal privacy of all service users. In order to provide more accurate and personalized services, the App will use and disclose your personal information in accordance with this Privacy Policy. However, the App will handle such information with utmost diligence and caution. Unless otherwise stated in this Privacy Policy, the App will not disclose or provide such information to third parties without your prior consent. The App may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. By agreeing to this Application Service Usage Agreement, you are deemed to have agreed to all contents of this Privacy Policy. This Privacy Policy is an integral part of the Application Service Usage Agreement.

II. SCOPE OF APPLICATION

(a) Registration of an account is not required for your use;

(b) The Application automatically receives and records information about your browser and computer when you use the application network service or visit the website of the application platform, including but not limited to your IP address, browser type, language used, access date and time, software and hardware characteristics information, and website records requested by you;

(c) Personal user data obtained by the App from business partners through lawful means.

You acknowledge and agree that the following information is not covered by this Privacy Policy:

(a) Keywords entered by you when using the search service provided by the application platform;

(b) Information and data posted in the App by you, including but not limited to participation in activities, transaction details, and evaluation details;

(c) Violations of legal provisions or violations of these Rules of the App and actions taken against you by the App.

III. INFORMATION USE

(a) The App will not disclose, sell, lease, share or trade your personal information to any unrelated third party without prior permission. However, the app and its affiliates may provide services for you in conjunction with a third party, in which case access to such information will be prohibited after the service has ended.

(b) The App also prohibits any third party from collecting, modifying, selling or distributing your personal information through any means. If any user on the application platform engages in these activities, the Application reserves the right to immediately terminate their service agreement.

(c) In order to better serve users, the App may use your personal information to provide you with tailored information of interest. This includes sending product and service updates as well as sharing information with partners (with your consent) so that they can send you relevant product and service updates.

IV. INFORMATION DISCLOSURE

The App may disclose your personal information in whole or in part under the following circumstances, based on your personal preferences or legal provisions:

(a) Disclosure to third parties with your prior consent;

(b) Sharing your personal information with third parties to provide the products and services you have requested;

(c) Disclosing to third parties or administrative or judicial bodies in accordance with relevant legal provisions or at their request;

(d) If you have violated relevant laws and regulations of China, this application Service Agreement, or related rules, disclosure to a third party is necessary;

(e) If you are a qualified IP complainant and have filed a complaint, disclosure may be made to the respondent at their request for resolution of disputes over rights;

(f) In a transaction created on the Application platform, if any party fulfills its transaction obligations and requests information disclosure, the Application has the right to decide whether to provide necessary information such as contact details of its counterparty for facilitating completion of the transaction or dispute resolution.

(g) Other disclosures deemed appropriate by the App in accordance with laws, regulations, or website policies.

V. INFORMATION STORAGE AND EXCHANGE

The information and data collected about you by the App will be stored on the servers of the App and its affiliates. This information and data may also be transmitted to, accessed, stored, and displayed outside the country or region where you are located, as well as outside the country where the information and data collected by the App is located.

VI. COOKIE USE

(a) If you do not refuse to accept cookies, the App will set or access cookies on your computer in order to facilitate your login and use of the App Platform services or features that rely on cookies. The Application utilizes cookies to provide you with more personalized and considerate services, including promotional services.

(b) You have the right to choose whether to accept or reject cookies. You can opt out of accepting cookies by adjusting your browser settings. However, if you choose not to accept cookies, you may be unable to log in or utilize the Application's network services or features that rely on cookies.

(c) This Policy pertains to information obtained through cookies generated by the App.

VII. INFORMATION SECURITY

(a) This application account is equipped with security protection features. Please ensure the confidentiality of your user name and password information. The application will encrypt user passwords and implement other security measures to prevent loss, misuse, and unauthorized alteration of your information. However, please be aware that there are no "perfect security measures" on the internet.

(b) When using the application network service for online transactions, it is inevitable that you will need to communicate with the counterparty or potential transaction partner.

VIII. PERMISSION AND PRIVACY STATEMENT

When utilizing the Software and its services, you are voluntarily providing us with personal information or granting us permission.

(a) Additional information: If you contact us via email, we may collect your email address, along with any questions or suggestions you provide, and identify your user ID. However, this information is solely used for the purpose of offering support services and will not be linked to any other data collected from you through the Software.

(b) Access to albums/photos: To ensure seamless synchronization of wallpaper in the style theme with your phone wallpaper and enable the use of pictures from your phone album to set custom icons for third-party apps, we require access to your album. Refusal of access will result in inability to utilize the aforementioned functions normally.

(c) Access to Bluetooth: In order for normal display of Bluetooth connection status when applying the corresponding style theme to the control panel, active authorization is necessary for us to access your Bluetooth status; otherwise, normal display of Bluetooth status on the control panel will not be possible.

(d) Location permissions access: To enable normal usage of "Weather" and other functional plug-ins, authorization is required for accessing location permissions in order to obtain weather conditions at your location. Refusal of authorization will result in inability to utilize this feature.

(e) Access to exercise steps: For proper display of exercise steps on the widget after adding it onto your desktop, authorization is needed for accessing step information collected by your health app or device system. The step information is only stored locally on the device and will not be uploaded onto our server. Refusal of authorization will lead to improper display of daily steps on Exercise Steps widget but will not affect usage of other software features.

IX. CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

(a) If there are any changes to our Privacy Policy, we will update this Policy on our website and other relevant platforms to ensure that you are informed about how your personal information is collected, used, accessed, and disclosed under different circumstances.

(b) The Company reserves the right to modify this policy at any time. Please check back regularly for updates. In the event of any significant changes to this policy, the Company will notify you through a notice on the website.

Party B discloses personal information such as contact details or postal address. Please handle your personal information with care and only share it when necessary. If you suspect that your personal information has been compromised, especially if your App username and password have been leaked, please contact the App's customer service immediately so that appropriate measures can be taken.
